Private Teen Patti: full user story

Three players, three phones, landscape. Every screen from landing page to leaving the table, shown side by side for Asha (host / first dealer), Bela and Chirag.
Round 1: AK47 with joker choice, raise, chat, a rules check mid-hand, a private sideshow, a fold and a show. Round 2: the dealer rotates to Bela, who picks Muflis; a fold, a last-player win and a voluntary reveal. Then history, themes and leaving.

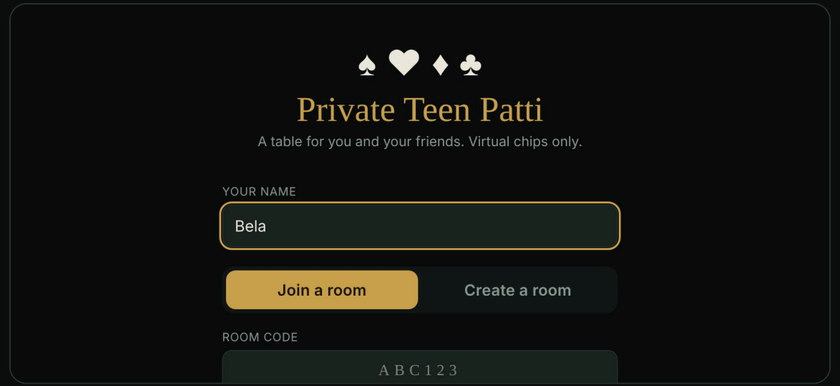

Room 49CSES · recorded against the local build with a mocked sign-in, so realtime updates arrive by the 5-second polling fallback here; on the live site they are pushed instantly. Sounds are not visible in screenshots.

1 Landing page

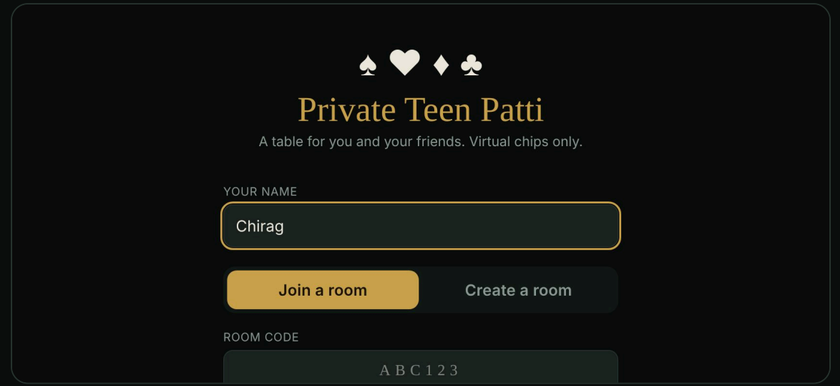

Each friend opens the link on their phone and types a name. No sign-up, no email, no password.

2 Host sets up the table

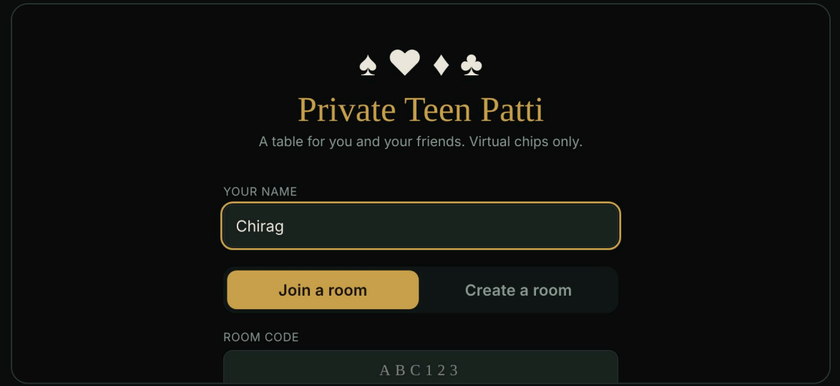

Asha taps "Create a room": starting chips, boot, players, turn timer, and betting / house rules are all hers to configure. Bela and Chirag wait with the join form.

ASHA

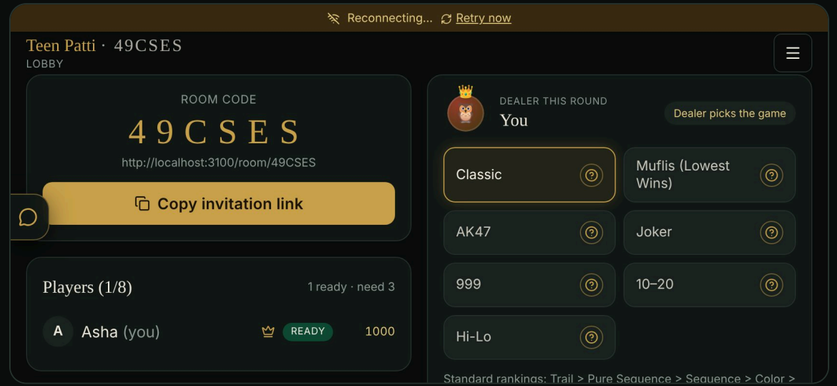

BELA

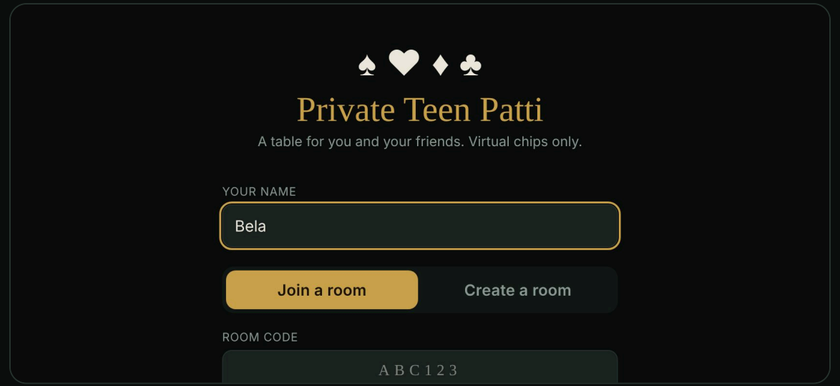

CHIRAG

3 Room created

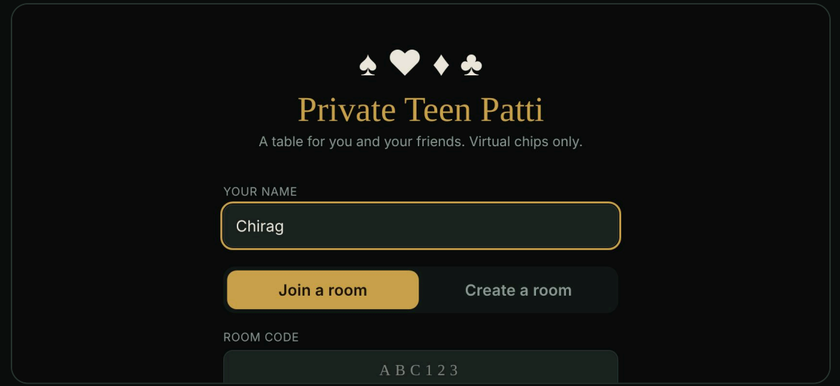

The room gets a six-letter code (49CSES) and an invite link to share. Asha is host and the first dealer.

ASHA

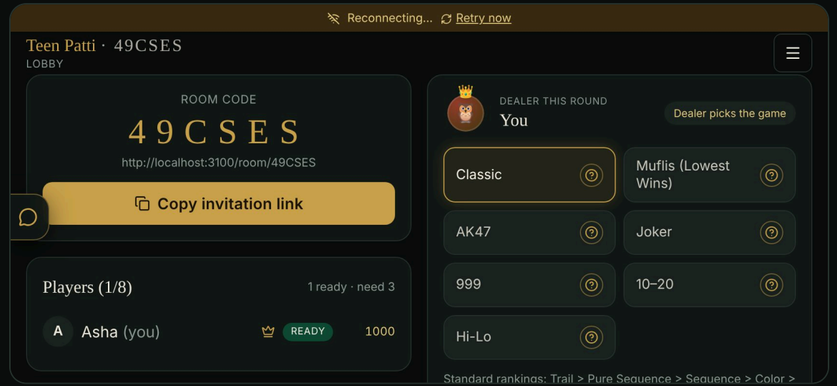

BELA

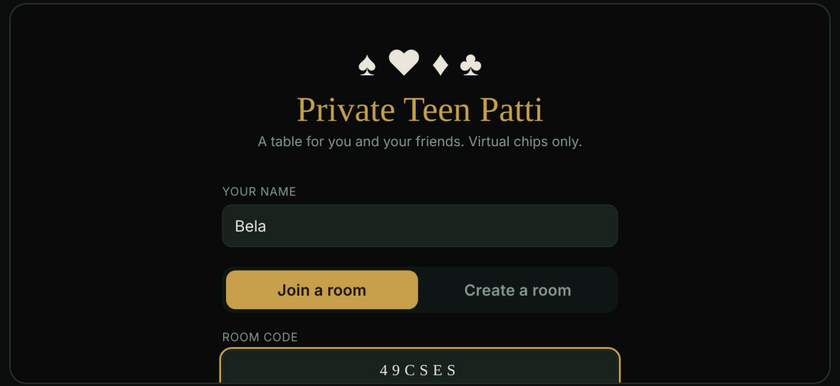

CHIRAG

4 Friends enter the room code

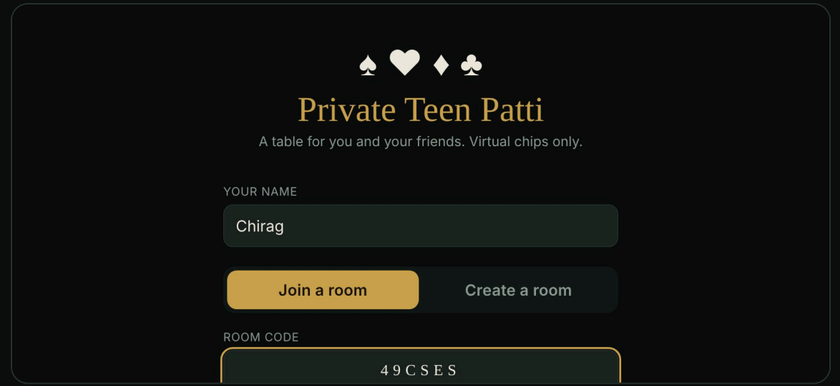

Bela and Chirag type the code (or open the invite link). Both players are about to join.

CHIRAG

5 Everyone is in the lobby

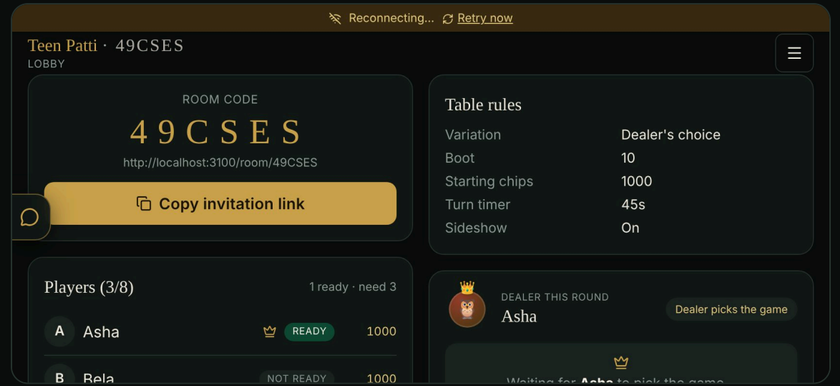

Three players are seated. Landscape layout: players on the left, game setup on the right. Friends tap "I'm ready".

ASHA

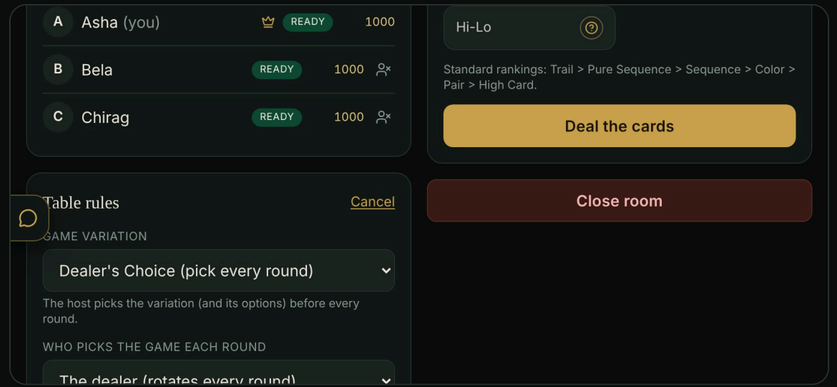

BELA

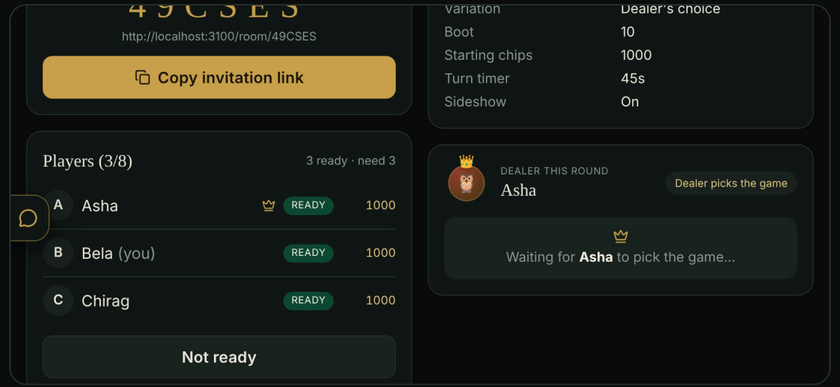

CHIRAG

6 Host can tweak the rules

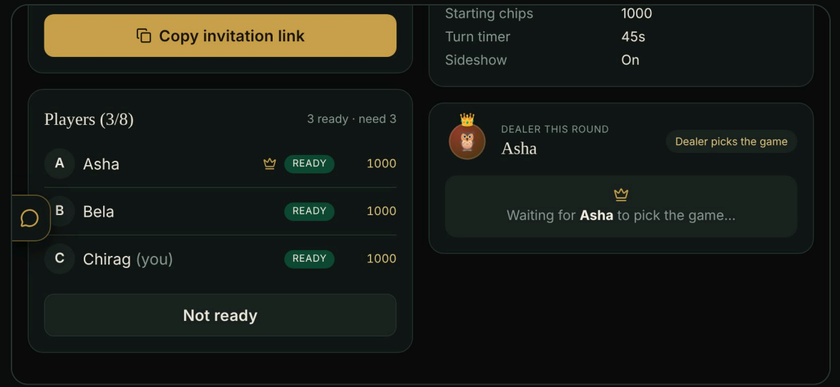

Before the game, the host can change the boot, chips, timer, sideshow, show costs, tie handling and more. Settings are locked once a round starts.

7 Dealer checks the AK47 rules

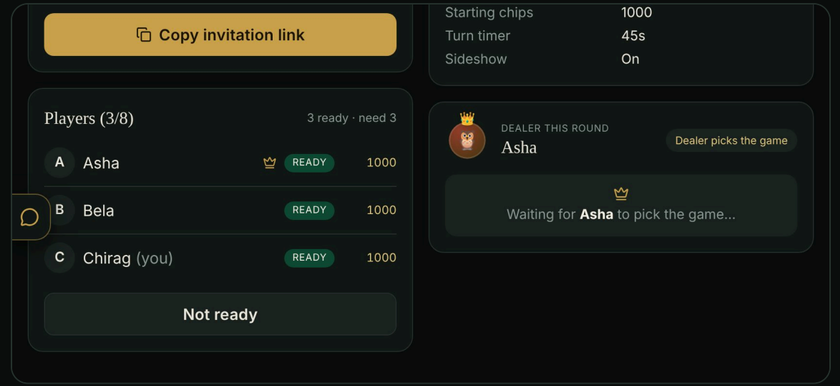

The dealer (Asha) taps the ? on a variation. A sheet explains the rule with real card examples. The same ? is on the table during play.

ASHA

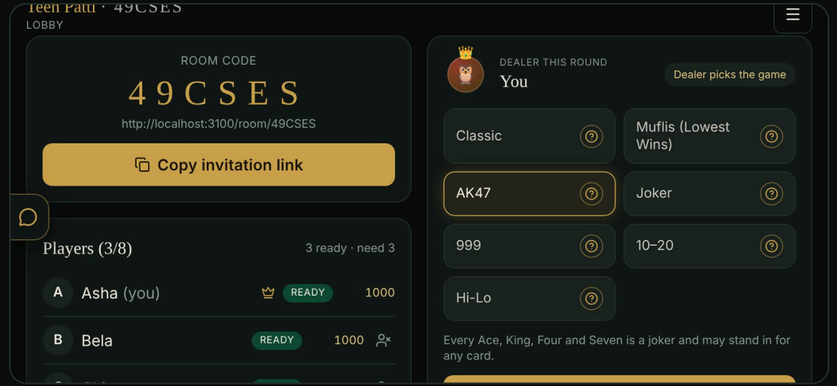

BELA

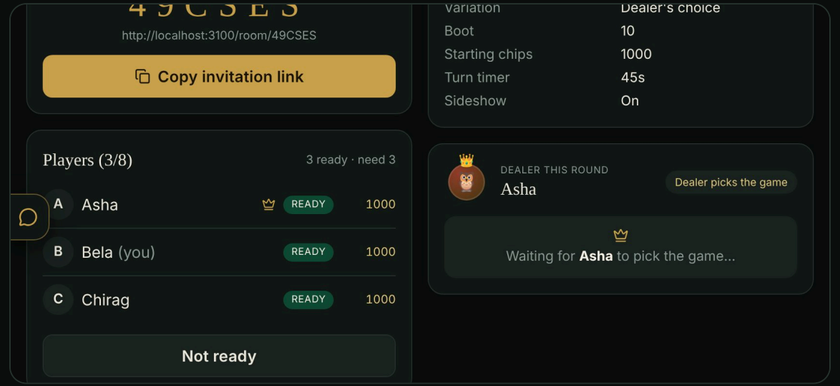

CHIRAG

8 Dealer picks AK47

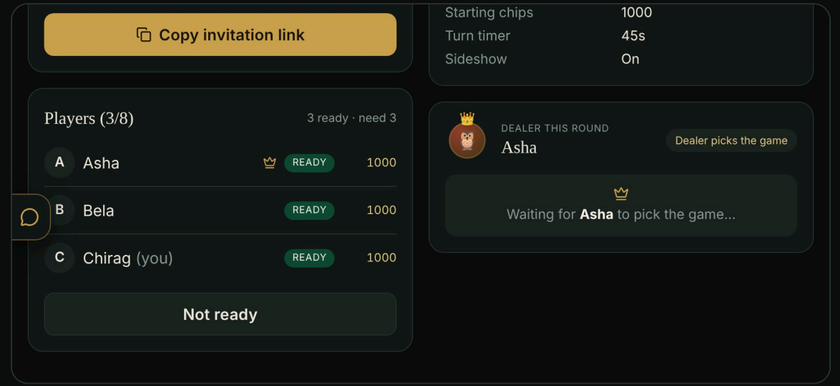

The dealer chooses the game for their round: Aces, Kings, 4s and 7s are jokers. Other players see "Waiting for the dealer".

ASHA

CHIRAG

9 Cards dealt, boot collected

Everyone paid the boot (10). The dealer chip (D) is on Asha; play starts with the next seat. Everyone is playing blind, so no card is face-up.

10 Bela looks at her cards

Only Bela's phone shows her cards. The Ace is a joker: it is marked, and "auto" means it currently stands for the best card for her (a 9).

ASHA

BELA

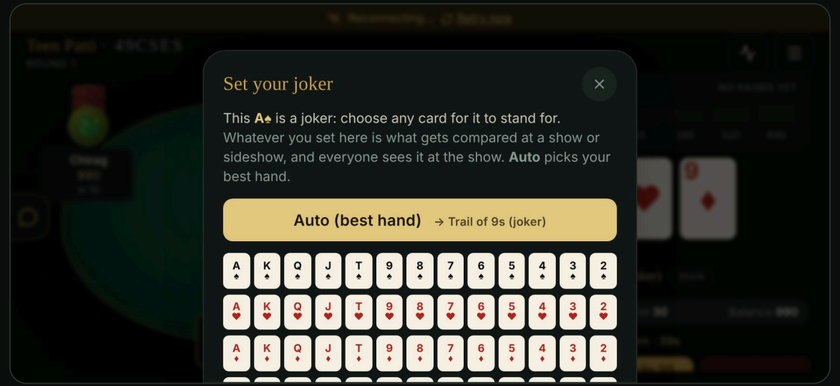

CHIRAG

11 Tap a joker to choose its value

Bela taps the joker and picks the card it stands for. A live preview shows what her hand becomes. Whatever she sets is what counts at a show or sideshow.

ASHA

BELA

CHIRAG

12 Joker set manually

The joker is now fixed as the 9♣ (no longer "auto"). Everyone will see this choice if the hand is shown.

ASHA

BELA

CHIRAG

13 Bela raises

Raising doubles the stake: the ladder shows 10 → 20 and who raised. Bela is seen, so she paid 40. Every seat shows what it has put in and its last action.

14 Chat message arrives

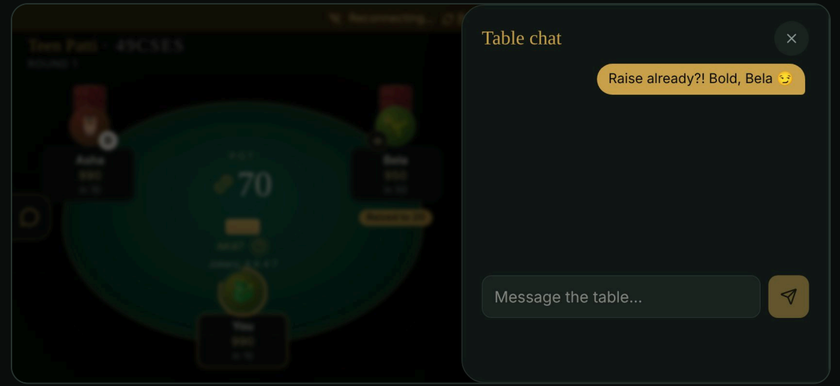

Chirag sends a message from the chat drawer. Everyone else gets a banner (with an unread badge on the bubble) that they can tap to open and reply.

ASHA

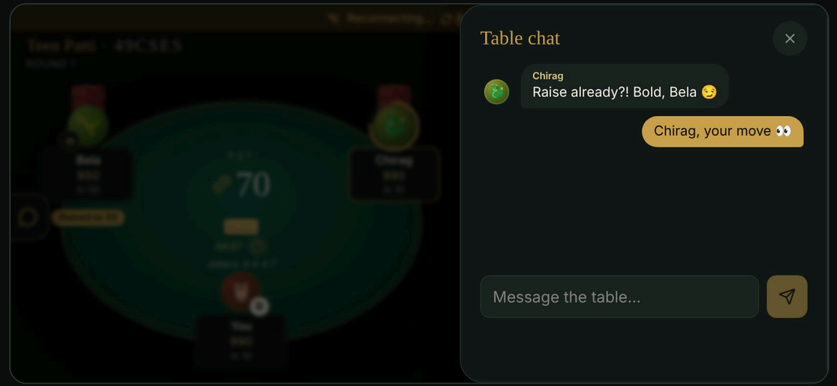

BELA

CHIRAG

15 Replying in chat

Asha opens the chat and replies. Messages are plain text, kept for the room (last 100), and deleted with it.

CHIRAG

16 Chirag checks the rules mid-hand

Not sure how jokers work? The ? by the pot opens the rules for the game being played, without leaving the table.

ASHA

BELA

CHIRAG

17 Chirag looks and likes his hand

His King is a joker; auto-best makes it a trail of 6s. He considers a sideshow against Bela (the previous seen player).

ASHA

BELA

CHIRAG

18 Sideshow request

Chirag pays one chaal to ask Bela to compare hands. Bela gets an Accept / Decline prompt with a countdown. Asha only sees that a sideshow was requested.

ASHA

BELA

CHIRAG

19 Sideshow result is private

Bela and Chirag privately compare cards, including how each joker was used. Chirag's hand is weaker, so he packs. Asha learns only that Chirag packed.

ASHA

BELA

CHIRAG

20 Two players left

Asha (still blind) matches the stake. With only two left, a show is possible: Bela's buttons now include Show.

ASHA

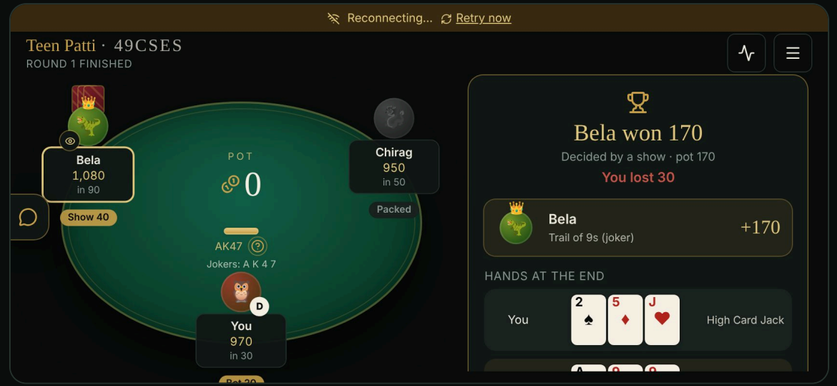

BELA

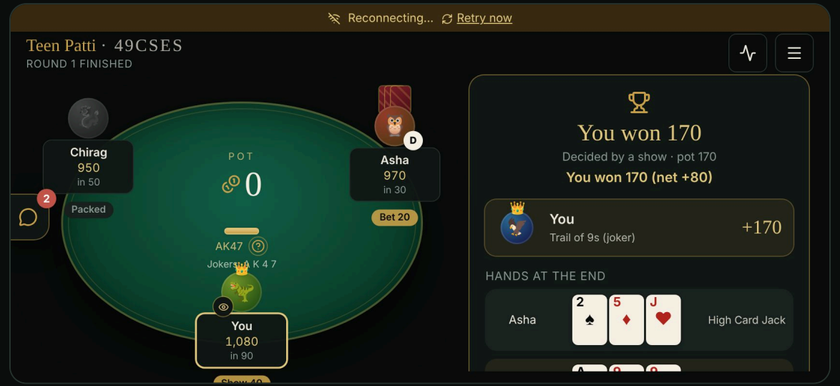

CHIRAG

21 Show! Winner screen

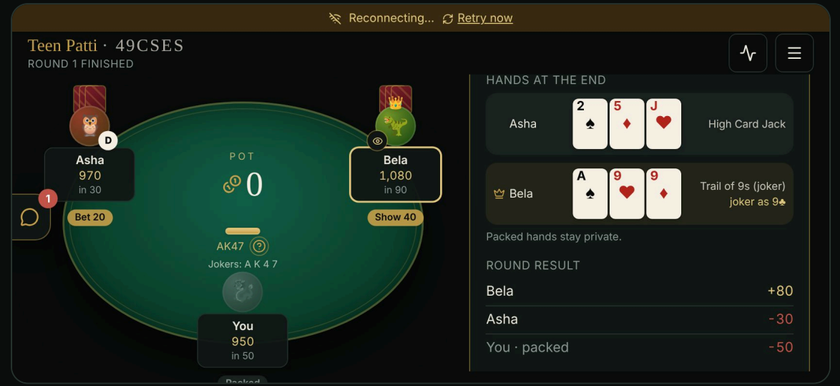

Both hands are revealed to the table. Bela wins the pot; her joker is shown as the 9♣ she chose, so everyone sees who set what. Net winnings and the dealer rotation are shown.

ASHA

BELA

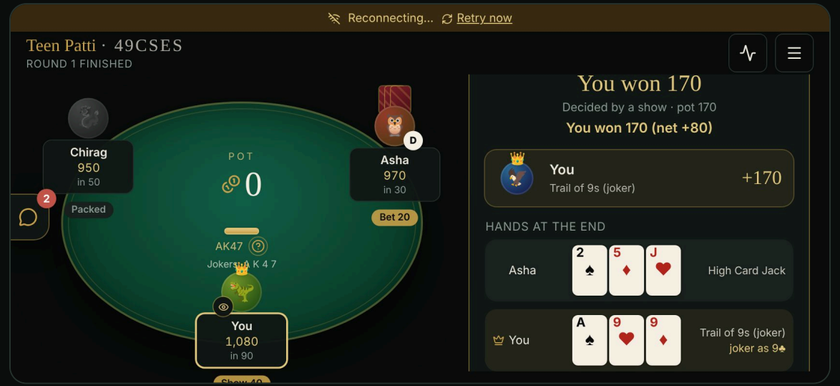

CHIRAG

22 Hands at the end + scoreboard

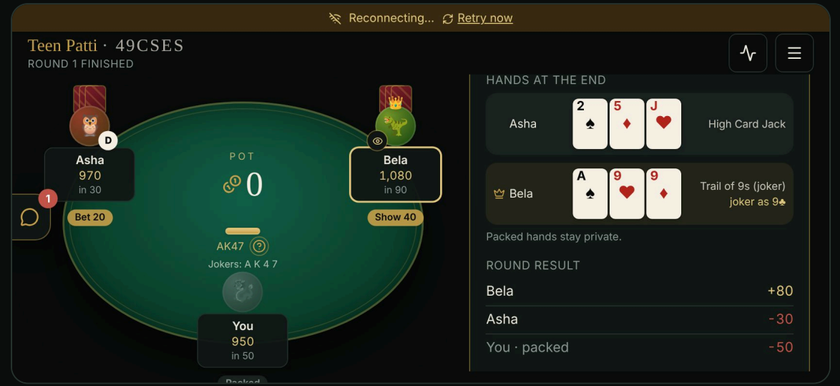

Everyone who did not pack shows their hand. Packed hands stay private (Chirag can still see his own). The scoreboard shows each player's net result for the round.

ASHA

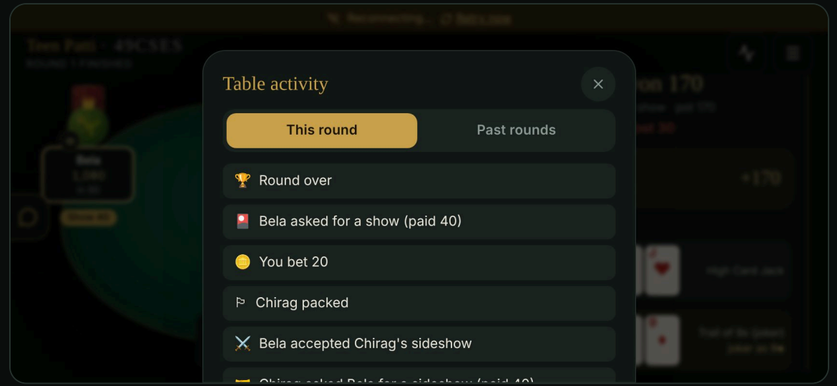

BELA

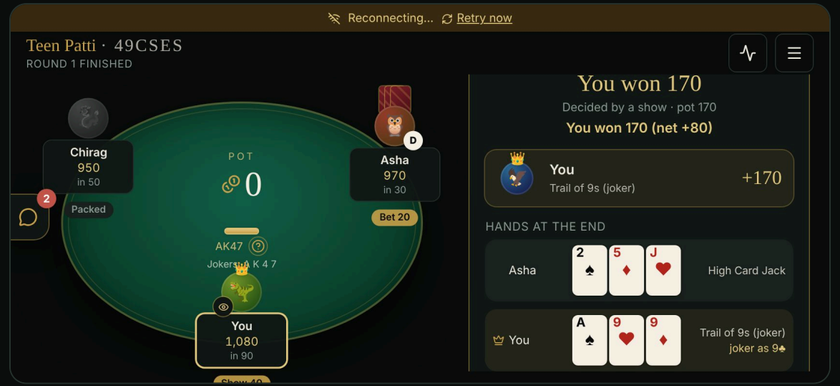

CHIRAG

23 Activity feed

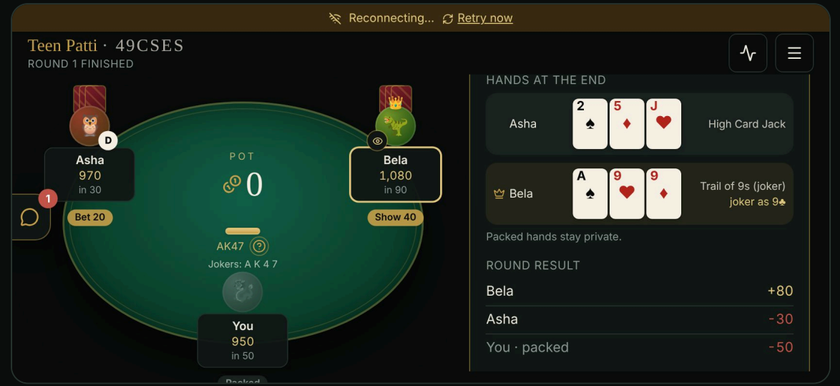

The feed lists who did what this round: raise, sideshow, pack, show. Nothing private appears in it.

ASHA

BELA

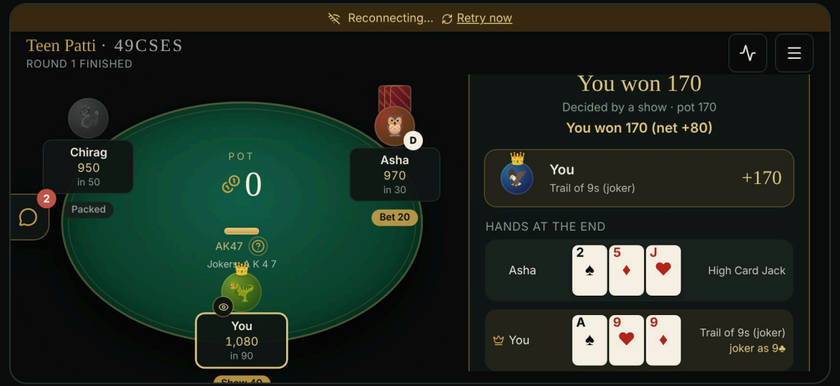

CHIRAG

24 Dealer moves to Bela

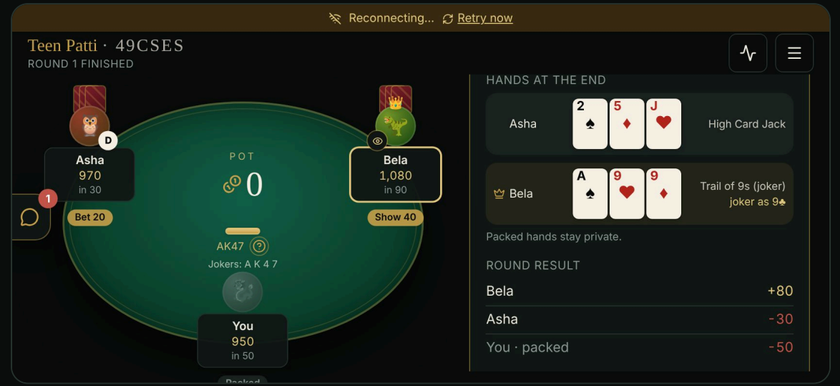

The dealer button moves one seat. Bela picks the next game; Asha and Chirag see that they are waiting for her.

ASHA

BELA

CHIRAG

25 Bela reads the Muflis rules

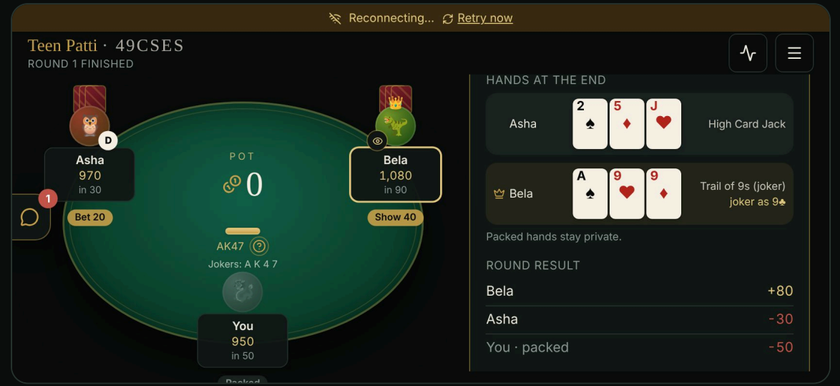

Before choosing, Bela checks Muflis (lowest hand wins) with its examples.

ASHA

BELA

CHIRAG

26 New variation: Muflis

A new round with a new game. In Muflis the lowest hand wins, so 5-3-2 is the best hand. Pots and stakes reset; balances carry over.

ASHA

BELA

CHIRAG

27 Menu: sound, themes, leave

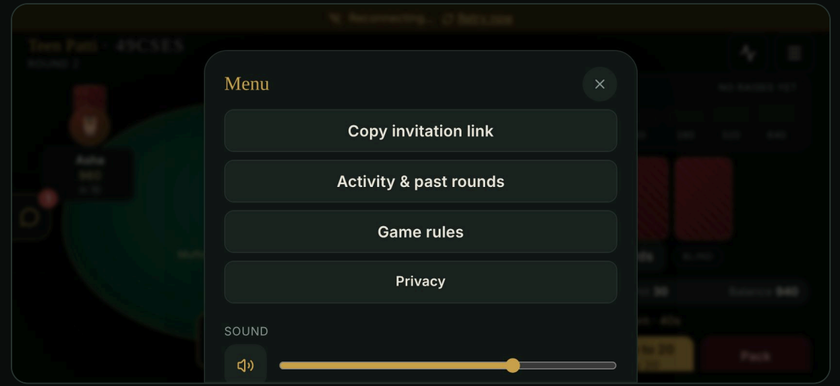

Sound effects (synthesized, with mute and volume), four table themes, activity, rules and a Leave button live in the menu.

ASHA

BELA

CHIRAG

28 Chirag picks the Midnight theme

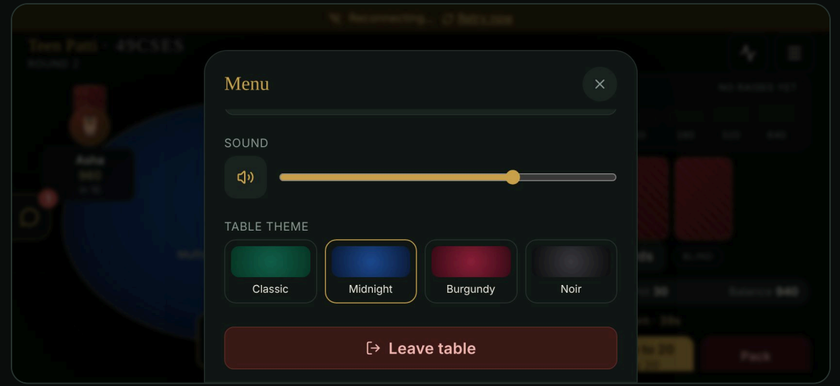

Themes are personal; the others keep the classic green.

ASHA

BELA

CHIRAG

29 Chirag folds

Chirag packs. His seat greys out for everyone and shows "Packed". His chips stay in the pot.

ASHA

BELA

CHIRAG

30 Asha looks: 5-3-2

The best Muflis hand. Asha bets while Bela decides.

ASHA

BELA

CHIRAG

31 Everyone folded: Asha wins

When everyone else packs, no hands are shown automatically. The winner can choose to show her cards.

ASHA

BELA

CHIRAG

32 Winner shows her hand

Asha flexes her 5-3-2 to the table. Everyone sees the label and the scoreboard.

ASHA

BELA

CHIRAG

33 Past rounds

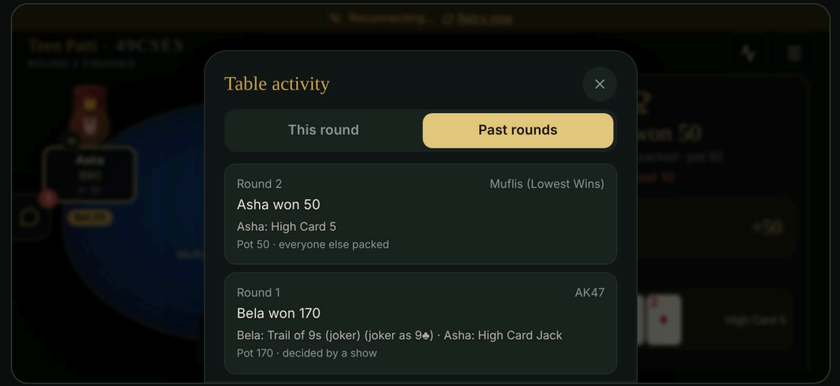

The round history lists every finished round with its winner, pot and the hands that were shown (including joker choices).

ASHA

BELA

CHIRAG

34 Leaving the table

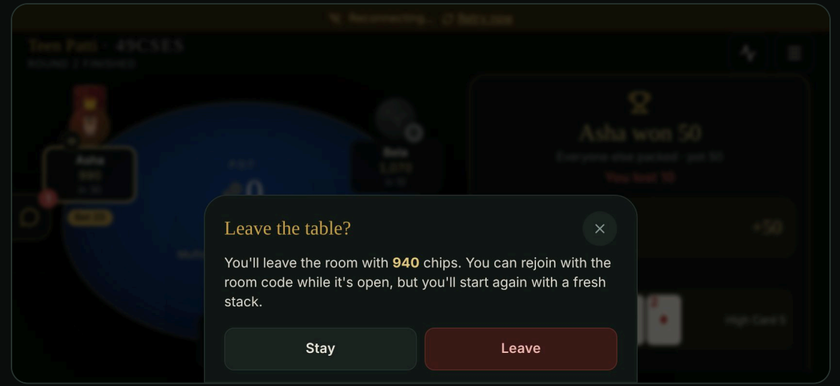

Anyone can leave. Mid-round, you pack and your chips in the pot stay there; between rounds you simply walk out with your stack. Host duties pass on if the host leaves.

ASHA

BELA

CHIRAG

35 Chirag has left

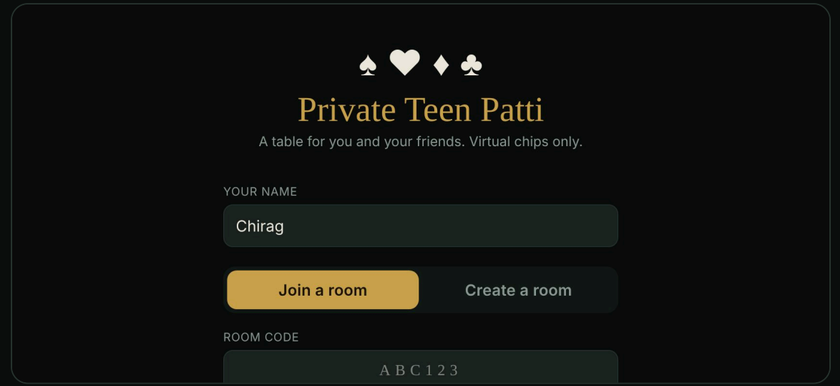

Chirag is back on the home page. Asha and Bela keep playing with two players.
