TEEN PATTI · MAHARAJA

The new design, screen by screen, as it looks on a phone held sideways (844×390, plus a small 640×360 phone).
Everything fits on one screen with no scrolling: a full table with your cards at the bottom, one gold action column, and pop-ups for the moments that matter (sideshow, joker, victory, picking the next game).

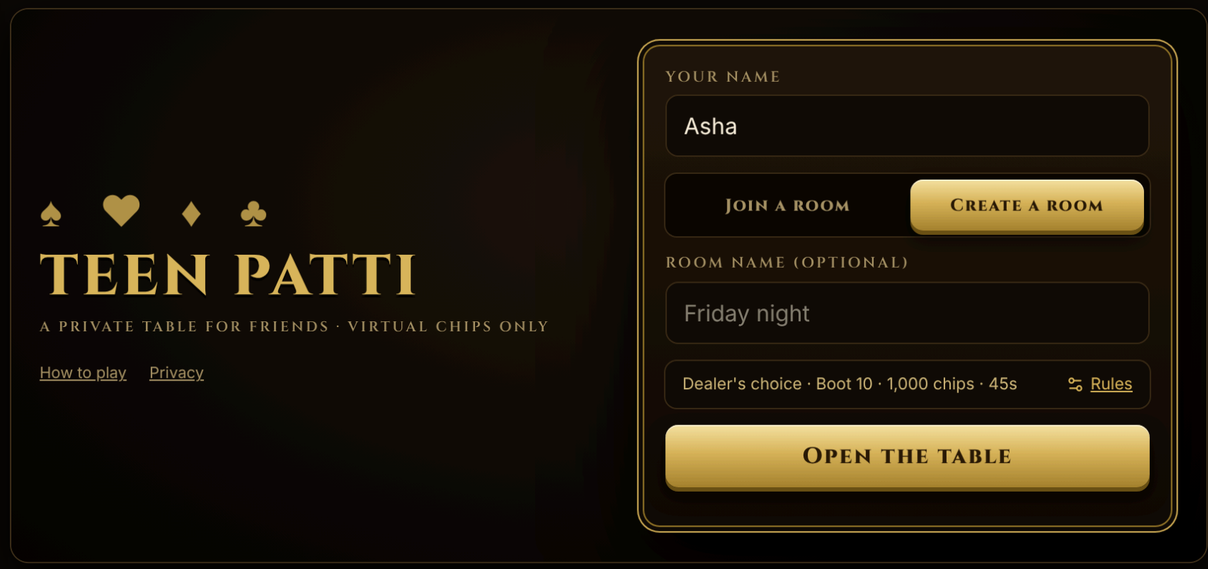

Landing

Name, then Join or Create. Brand on the left, form on the right.

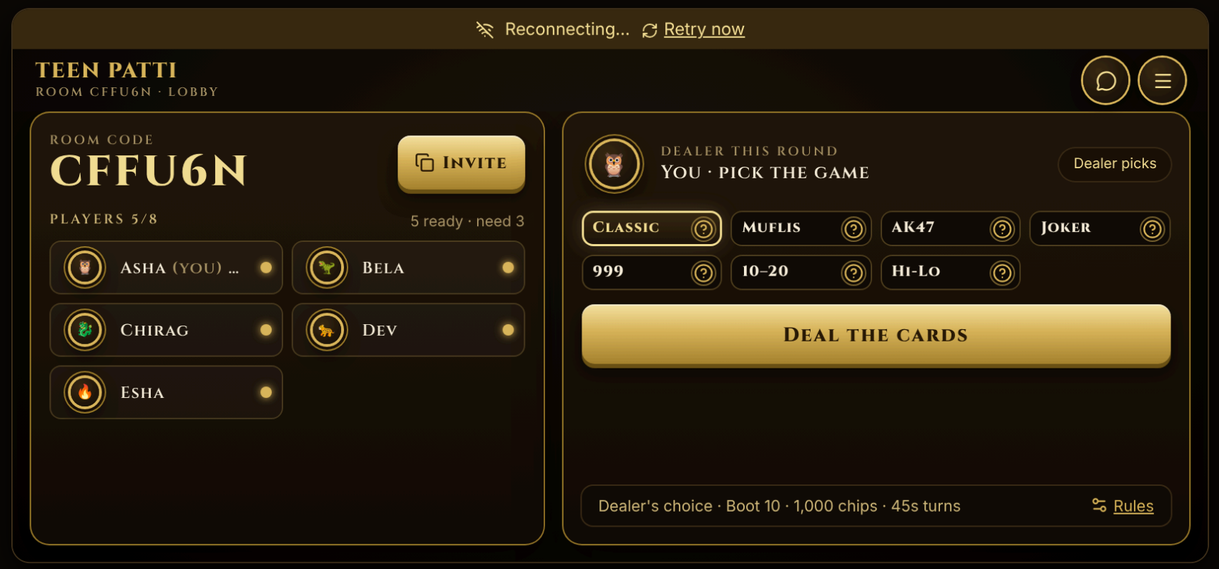

Create a room

Rules are summarised in one line; "Rules" opens the full settings in a sheet.

Lobby (host = first dealer)

Round intro (non-classic games)

Plain explanation of this round's game; for joker games, the steps.

Table: your turn, blind

Full table, your cards fanned at the bottom, one gold action column.

Table: your turn, seen, joker game

Joker counts as your best card automatically; tap it to announce a card.

Announce your joker

Only cards that keep your best hand are offered (here: the four 9s).

Waiting for another player

The column shows who is thinking and their timer.

Sideshow asked of you

Big Accept / Decline with a countdown and a plain explanation.

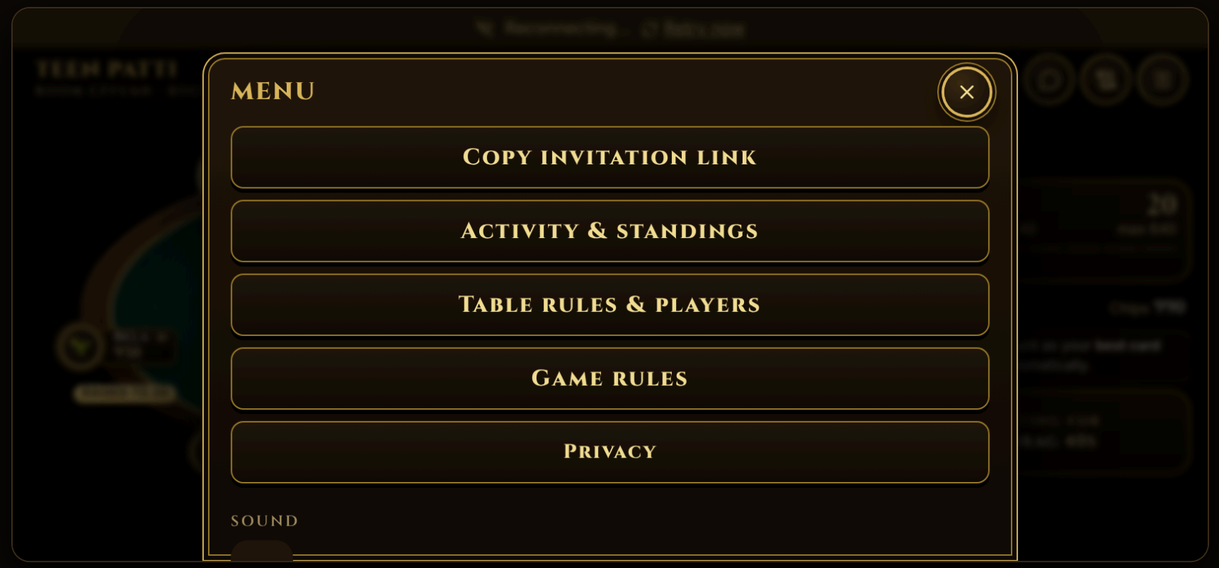

Private sideshow result

Only the two players see both hands and the verdict.
